ALL TO - GET - THERE

A Phonetic English Pathway for Academic and Social Engagement

Global Connect

University Public Engagement and Third Mission

In today's digital and social media era, "G. d'Annunzio" University embraces its Third Mission by bridging academia and society. This includes fostering interaction, knowledge sharing, and community development through innovative outreach activities.

Project Overview

ALL TO-GET-THERE

is a socio-cultural and linguistic exchange program designed to improve spoken English skills with a phonetic focus. It aims to empower participants, enhance institutional internationalisation and promote inclusive academic growth.

Project Objectives

- Language Skill Enhancement: improve English communication for administrative staff and faculty.
- Community Involvement: open to external participants to promote integration and local development.
- Intercultural Dialogue: foster mutual cultural enrichment through language and interaction.

Methodology

- Spoken English with the “I sound English™” method: focus on phonetics, practical vocabulary, idioms, and real-world use.
- Public Speaking & Conference Training: develop fluency and presentation skills across disciplines.
- Group Workshops: collaborative learning with high-quality engagement across professional and cultural backgrounds.

Expected Impact

- Strengthen English proficiency among university personnel.
- Build stronger ties between university and local community.
- Support internationalisation and academic prestige.
- Promote a cohesive, interculturally aware academic environment.

ALL TO - GET - THERE

Embodies the University's strategic commitment to cultural, social, international outreach and educational advancement through language learning and active public engagement.
