

Dott. ssa Morena Petrini

Dr. Petrini Graduated in Dentistry with honors in 2008 and in 2012 she obtained a Ph.D. in Basic and Applied Medical Sciences with a mention of Doctor Europeus.

She specialized with honors in Odontostomatologic Surgery in 2016 at the University of Chieti and she attended several implantology and bone regeneration courses in Brazil and in Italy.

Dr. Petrini obtained a Master's Degree in Interceptive Orthodontics in 2019 at the University of Florence.

Currently, she is also a Certified Provider of the Invisalign dental aligner system.

Dr. Petrini received 3 Research Fellowships (5 years in total):

- From 2013 to 2016: research grant from the University of Chieti for a project on oral biomarkers in dentistry;

- From 2016 to 2017: research grant from the University of Pisa for the treatment of periodontal disease in patients suffering from systemic diseases

- From 2019 to 2020: research grant from the University of Chieti for a project on the application of LED devices in dentistry.

She has been collaborating since 2010 at the chair of Dental Materials of the University of Chieti and she is co-author of the two university texts for the CLOPD and for the CLID "Odontostomatological Materials and Technologies" published by Ariesdue.

Since 2011 she has been researching new technologies like LED and LASER devices and is the author of more than 30 articles published in impacted international scientific journals.

From 2016 to 2018 she worked in the Periodontology and Halitosis Department of the S. Chiara Hospital in Pisa

She has been working as a freelancer dentist since 2009, mainly in implantology, periodontology, and orthodontics.

In 2018 she received the national scientific qualification for second-level professor MED 28.